

AT WAR WITH RACIST MILWAUKEE

The heat has begun. Summer kicked off with 54 arrests at this year's Juneteenth Day Parade, as the Milwaukee Police Department bore its ugly racist teeth once again. This predictable event adds yet more garbage to the historical wreckage of Milwaukee. In the country's most segregated city nothing is an isolated incident. We have not forgotten Frank Jude or the young man murdered by MPD last year in the back of a squad car. We saw the black high school student on the ground being tasered by police after a playful water balloon fight. We witnessed the uproar and calls to reclaim the city for whiteness after each flashmob of 2011. The signs on bus stops reading "No MPS students", the curfews at the mall responding to the fear of youth run amok are not slick—they are contemporary echoes of Jim Crow. This shit makes us sick.

Milwaukee's debt is unpaid. The police, the politicians, the city planners and the media all stand guilty for their part in our fucked up racist city. Change is gonna come one way or another, and it might not be pretty.

DESEGREGATE MILWAUKEE
ABOLISH THE POLICE
